TIMELINE

AUG 3

In Person Auditions:

Students return to the studio for the first time in six months to audition for performing teams!

SEPTEMBER

Explore Dance:

A new workshop series is created to give dancers access to and experience in different genres of dance.

OCT 24

Dance Lab Showcase:

First live performance showcasing the dancers since the pandemic began. All audiences are virtual.

NOV 14-DEC 14

Lockdown:

All classes go virtual with the second state mandates lockdown of the year. Performing Teams get creative and film their dance numbers as they prepare for their Winter Concert. Various locations were used all around the Seattle area.

DEC 12

Virtual Winter Concert:

"Come as You Are" is broadcast virtually. VIP tickets include a special gift delivered to people around the Auburn area and behind the scene access to exclusive virtual content.

DEC 15-JAN 30

Blacktop Ballroom:

With King County in Phase One, students dance behind the studio under canopies. It's dark, cold and rainy, but fun!

FEBRUARY

Take Two!

Performing Teams film their second round of dance numbers around the Seattle Area as they prepare for PBD's first ever Spring Showcase.

MAR 26-27

Spring Showcase:

Students and teams showcase their work virtually. Small groups of parents are allowed into the studio to watch for the first time in a year.

APR 16-17

Extreme Competition:

Five of PBD's formation ballroom dance teams travel to the Extreme Invitational Competition in Idaho. Many teams and individuals place in the top of their divisions!

MAY 8

PBD Prom:

The first social gathering for students is held at the studio! A wonderful "Mask"-erade Ball.

JUN 17-18

Live Summer Concert:

"Simple + True" is performed live at the Ikea Performing Arts Center at 50% capacity. Students and parents rejoice!
