Pacific Ballroom Dance Presents, "Joy"

As we enter this season of bright decorations and musical melodies, the Pacific Ballroom Dance (PBD) Performing Teams are preparing to brighten up the hearts of many at Auburn Performing Arts Center on December 5th and 6th at 7pm as they present their Winter Concert, "Joy".

Richard Wagner once said, "Joy is not in things; it is in us." This holiday season Pacific Ballroom Dance celebrates the joy that dance inspires in our lives. It is an art form that combines the stirring power of music with the authentic expression of movement, not only for our audiences, but for the dancers themselves. "Our company of dancers have been working hard and are excited to share their joy and love of life through dance.", said PBD's Artistic Director Katie Mecham.

Performances will include numbers from over 10 ballroom formation teams dancing a variety of Latin and Ballroom dance styles that will uplift your heart. Who doesn't need a little more joy in their life? Tickets are on sale at pacificballroomdance.org. Ticket prices increase at the door, so get them now!

Pacific Ballroom Dance (PBD) began in 1994 as a small, local youth club with a goal to provide young teens with the opportunity to build respectful social skills, self-esteem, fitness and teamwork. In 2003, PBD became a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with a mission to build character in youth by providing a positive ballroom dance experience. Today, PBD is a thriving youth dance education studio based in Auburn, Washington, serving more than 1000 students annually from age 10-18 from throughout the Puget Sound area.

MISSION Pacific Ballroom Dance builds character in youth by providing a positive ballroom dance experience.
